Announcing New Turning Point USA Contributor Paige Roux

Paige Roux is here to reclaim the conversation on firearms and bring women to the forefront of the 2A community

PHOENIX, Aug. 13, 2021—Turning Point USA is proud to announce its newest Contributor, Paige Roux, who will be launching her new TPUSA Live show, Reloaded, streaming weekly. Reloaded is reclaiming the conversation on firearms. Join Paige Roux every week as she humanizes the Second Amendment by empowering, educating, and demonstrating the rights afforded to us by the Constitution. From general firearm education to explosive range demonstrations: This is Reloaded.

Roux is the senior firearms instructor and training coordinator for Shooter's World in Phoenix, Arizona. Her passion for firearms and empowering Americans to exercise their Second Amendment right stems from her unique personal story of growing up in her father's indoor shooting range since she was just 4-years-old. Paige has assisted in shooting courses since she was 14-years old, and became a certified firearms instructor and concealed weapons permit holder as soon as she turned 21. While teaching an all-women's beginner class in 2018, Paige noticed a major lack in representation for women in the 2A community as most training and accessories were designed for men.

Since then, Paige has created a platform to prove that concealed carry can also be fashionable, inspiring new shooters from all backgrounds to make their first steps into firearm education and ownership.
