

Turning Point USA Announces 'The American Comeback Tour'

'The American Comeback Tour' is coming to college campuses nationwide this spring semester featuring TPUSA Founder and CEO Charlie Kirk and other special guests

PHOENIX, Feb. 11, 2025 — Turning Point USA is launching The American Comeback Tour, a nationwide campus tour aimed at equipping students with the tools to push back against leftwing indoctrination in academia and reclaim their right to free speech. More than just a celebration of conservative momentum, this tour is a direct response to those trying to silence dissenting voices.

TPUSA Founder and CEO Charlie Kirk is leading the charge, confronting progressive misinformation head-on and offering students the facts they won't hear in the classroom. Through candid conversations and fearless debates, he challenges the narratives that have dominated higher education for too long.

Charlie Kirk, Founder and CEO of Turning Point USA:

“The American comeback is powerful and real, and it’s sweeping the nation. However, one of the last strongholds of far-left, increasingly insane and out-of-touch ideologues is found inside the formerly hallowed halls of higher education. We have many of these purveyors of anti-American indoctrination on the run, but when they regroup, they will do so from inside the academy. So we will take the fight to them. America’s students are still only given one side of the story, the leftwing side, so we intend to continue balancing the scales and equipping local students to fight for their values. If you’re a progressive, you get to come to the front of the line and make your best argument, and I’ll make mine, as TPUSA celebrates the free exchange of ideas, open and honest debate, and the American comeback in our newest campus tour.”
